WELCOME TO HOTEL BRISTOL

Charming Hotel Bristol next to the Vienna State Opera has been an inspiring meeting point for the rich culture and business life of the metropolis on the Danube for more than a hundred years. As a living example of Viennese flair and exquisite service the Bristol combines precious fin-de-siècle antiques with state-of-the-art technology. Your elegant oasis in the heart of Vienna.

A TRIBUTE TO VIENNESE TRADITIONS

At midnight the 'Pummerin', St. Stephen's Cathedral's imposing bell, rings in the New Year. This moment is also celebrated in our restaurants with an exclusive gala dinner. Referring to the arrangement you have chosen, you will enjoy a 5-course gala menu in the elegant ambiance of the Restaurant Korso or a 5-course gala menu at the Restaurant Sirk with its breathtaking view of the Vienna State Opera.

GREAT ART

'Pioneers of Modernism'. The Belvedere owns the world's largest collection of paintings by Gustav Klimt and now presents this world-famous artist together with the congenial architect and designer Josef Hoffmann. Their intense collaboration, such in the Beethoven Exhibition at the Vienna Secession (1902) and the Stoclet Palace in Brussels (1905-12), set new standards in Europe when it comes to the concept of the Gesamtkunstwerk. Numerous works, such as Klimt's Portrait of Fritza Riedler, which clearly reflects Hoffmann's characteristic hand, attest to the two pioneers' mutual influence, which in this comprehensive exhibition is also explored with regard to their involvement in the Wiener Werkstätte. Our concierge will open the doors for you to a true art experience.

CULTURAL ENJOYMENT

More than hundred museums and over fifty theaters and opera houses invite you to a cultural experience in Vienna. No other place on earth can come up with so many famous composers who lived here, in Vienna. Beethoven's Ninth Symphony with the 'Ode to Joy' at the Konzerthaus, 'The Bat' in the State Opera next to the Bristol or at the Volksoper, or the acclaimed New Year's Eve Concert by the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra at the Musikverein are your cultural highlights towards the end of the year.

Here we know how to celebrate festivities – Happy New Year!
